for more recipes and stories.

All photos by Alec Joseph Bates (<http://marquisphotosf.com>) except for the photos of the scary man with the beard attacking the haunted honey caramel corn. That was taken by Irvin Lin.

Eat the Love and Irvin Lin was not reimbursed nor does he individually endorse any of the products you see in this PDF.

However Star Fine Foods did provide the Star California olive oil as a sample to Eat the Love free of charge.

Feel free to use what products you are comfortable with.
